ENTERTAINMENTS.

Hyperton.

"In Old Kentucky" was presented to a large audience last evening. During act second the famous and original band of pickaninnies, gathered from different parts of the south by the management and conducted by the young eccentric bandmaster in the world, was introduced, together with Frank Parham, the eccentric buck and soft shoe dancer, and Coley Grant and Walter Smart, the "Everglade Lightfoot" team. The performance was staged and presented in a most excellent manner. Among the company were Miss Lulu Tabar, Miss Charlotte Winnett, Miss Louise Bannell, Gustave Frankel, H. B. Bradley, E. L. Snader, and Paul Gilmore.

Donnelly and Girard will appear on Friday night in "The Rainmakers." The company includes Miss Isabelle Urquhart, the most beautiful woman on the American stage; Ann's Martell, a petite and versatile soubrette; the Sisters Harcourt (four in number and direct from London—their first appearance in America); the Leigh sisters, Thomas LeMack, Thomas Lewis, Arthur Rigby, Arthur K. Deagon, John Corrigan, W. M. Traver, and other equally capable people. The sale of seats is now open.

Joseph Haworth will present "Hamlet" on Saturday night. Mr. Haworth's "Hamlet" is said to be the most noteworthy impersonation of the "Melancholy Dane" upon the stage to-day. In the company are Mark Price, Grace Atwell, David R. Young, Julia Batchelder, Robert Graham, Ada Gilman, Louis Foy, Mrs. E. A. Eberle, Charles Inslee, Cordelia MacDonald, Richard B. Milloy and others. Sale of seats now open.

Grand Opera House.

In "The Ballet of the Boulevard" Manager Charles H. Yale of "The New-est Devil's Auction," which will open a three nights' engagement this evening, has struck the key note of popular taste. The double stage, with the rich oriental palace for the background, is in itself a novelty, and as each tableau vivant is disclosed, the audience goes wild over the many absurdities which are unfolded to their eager gaze. First the newboys and bootblacks who, in pleasing pantomime and dance, depict the peculiarities of their daily life. Then comes the two scenes of "After the Ball"; first gaily dressed ladies accompanied by their gallants, then the scene changes, and the "Ball of the Sluts" is shown. A very realistic representation of an "East Side of Town" dance is given, which gives way to a pantomime scene, representing the comic sides of police life; a patrol wagon is aptly introduced, and many other ludicrous effects. Then follow the French quadrille dancers, the new "Silver Mat" dance, "The Salvation Army," which must be seen to be appreciated; the beautiful effect, "The Shaft of Light," next appears, followed by the marvelous child dancer, "Little Miss Columbia."

Professor Schurr has introduced a new collection of objects of natural history in the lecture hall annex at the Grand Opera house, this week.

Keep your eye on the week of February 11.

Poll's Wonderful Theatre.

Fun and jollity at Wonderland. The Manhattan Comedy—Four furnish the bulk of the fun with their lively medleys of the sentimental and comic, and George K. Fortescue and Richard Gorman keep it going with their original mixture of comedy and burlesque. They are a great comedy team. Havens and Andrews are a splendid comedy sketch team, the dancing of Mr. Havens exceeding anything seen here in a long time. Miss Andrews is a charming singer, and the fact that most of her songs are of her own composition lends interest to their rendering. The Martell family, Miss Annie Bland, Shayne and Worden, and Frank Hurt are all attractive entertainers in their respective lines.

A DOUBLE WEDDING

At Warner Hall yesterday—Particulars of the interesting affair.

A double wedding took place in Warner hall yesterday afternoon. The brides were the two daughters of Andrew J. Stodel, Miss Hannah A. and Miss Reyna F. Joseph H. Ullman of this city, foreman for the American Corset company, was united to Miss Hannah, and Abram M. Friedman of Jersey city became the husband of Miss Reyna.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Levy of the Court street temple.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lillie Malt house and Miss Hattie Orneau in blue satin, Miss Fannie Eagen and Miss Esther Stodel of New York a cousin of the brides, in pink satin, Miss Hattie Hanneburger of New York and Miss Jennie Buchanan of Jersey City in white satin. Miss Bennie Ullman, sister of Joseph Ullman, was maid of honor to Miss Hannah. Her costume was of yellow figured satin with yellow ribbons and yellow ornaments to match. Miss Ethel Stodel, sister of the bride, was maid of honor to Miss Reyna. She was costumed in a beautiful dress of white figured satin with white trimmings and ribbons. The flower girls were Miss Anna Brenner and Miss Daisy Stodel, who wore figured satin dresses with lace and ribbon trimmings, and the train girls were the Misses Anna and Etta Friedman, who wore white satin gowns.

The page, Isadore Brenner, was attired in black velvet. The married ladies of the bridal party all wore black satin with chiffon trimmings.

The groomsmen were Isaac Ullman, Moses Mailhouse, Meyer Stodel, Jacques Stodel, all of this city; Sol Springarn of New York, and Morris Fox of Jersey City.

The brides were attired in elaborate gowns of white satin, trimmed with ribbons and duchess lace, each with a long train. The veils were of fine lace. At the conclusion of the ceremonies a wedding supper was served. A reception followed the banquet. The happy couples will be at home to their relatives and friends after February 24; Mr. and Mrs. Ullman at 144 Chestnut street in this city; and Mr. and Mrs. Friedman at 61 Bright street, Jersey City.

Music was furnished by the Philharmonic orchestra, Frank Fichtl, director.

SOUTHINGTON.

Feb. 6.—Edward Lowrey, who has been nominated and named for postmaster at the Southington postoffice, is a good farmer and being a town boy and always a town boy he must know a good many people, and being a hard worker he will do what he has to do and like it. He is a good farmer and has always kept himself busy. He has worked in the Southington National bank along with his cousin, Harry Merrill. The latter, who is teller in the bank, will like to have him postmaster better than anyone else, as both are cousins.

In Plantville the shops are all working and life is going on as usual. Travel on the tramway from Plantville to Southington is good these days.

Street incidents are plentiful on a cold day, with the wind blowing hard and strong. A stranger driving in a sleigh had his hat taken off and carried into a yard Tuesday afternoon. It was recovered by a passer-by while he remained interestedly watching its recovery with his lady companion and all three agreed as the hat was passed to its owner that it was a cold, blowing, stormy day.

And with chestnut wood at $4 per cord it is no wonder that you can think of the butts breaking open. Hard maple is $4.50 and is just as good.

The Young Men's T. A. B. & L. society have their bills up for their entertainment, as told in this paper Wednesday morning. It is "A Celebrated Case."

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Miss Marie Lawton, niece of Hon. O. J. Hodge of Cleveland, O., to Mr. Carl Dosegi of this city is announced. Miss Lawton is a guest of Miss Mary Dudley Burk, the elocutionist.

Salt Rheum, Impure Blood and a Racking Cough That Baffled Physicians, Finally Cured.

Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

In the town of Amherst, Mass., Mr. George B. Pierce and his mother are sole proprietors of the Amherst Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Pierce has suffered for a long time with salt rheum and a cough that foreboded consumption, but they have given way to health and vigor. Hearing of this a reporter called on Mrs. Pierce, and the following experience was related:

"For a long time I suffered from Salt Rheum," said Mrs. Pierce, "but about two years ago I slipped and hurt my knee, which made it worse. I can't begin to tell the agony I was in; my limbs became a mass of raw flesh covered with running sores. My friends would say I could not live long, and I thought so too. Well, I heard of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and Dr. David Kennedy's Salt Rheum Cream; I commenced using them, and in three weeks I walked out of doors. Last night I walked a mile, and I am sixty-three years of age. It shows that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and Salt Rheum Cream can do more than the physicians, for they made me well after my doctors told me I was incurable. I must also tell you of another preparation Dr. Kennedy advised me to use, which did as much for me. It was Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balm. I have had a wretched cough for the past fifteen years; the best doctors in the state united in saying that it was incurable, and that it was only a matter of time before my lungs would give out; my sleep was restless, I would lie awake for hours. I well recollect the first time I used Dr. Kennedy's Cherry Balm. It relieved my throat at once, and I slept all through that night. The first full night's rest I had in several years. It seemed like a miracle. I took but two bottles and was cured."

Dr. David Kennedy's Cherry Balm cures asthma, bronchitis, coughs, colds, incontinent consumption, whooping cough or croup. Taken with Dr. Kennedy's Cherry Balm, I never fail. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle. Dr. David Kennedy's Salt Rheum Cream is sold at 50c a package. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy costs $1 a bottle or six bottles for $5. Favorite Remedy ranks with the medical profession as the most perfect of all blood and nerve medicines. It restores the liver to a healthy condition and cures constipation. It is a certain cure for all diseases peculiar to women, and affords protection from attacks that originate in change of life. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, tumors, rheumatism, dyspepsia, all kidney, bladder and urinary diseases, gravel, diabetes, and Bright's disease. In this last disease it has cured where all else failed.
